HAMILTON FLYS IN NEW BRITAIN BEFORE 100,000

New Britain, July 2.—A prophet is not without honor in his own country especially if he is one of the world's most daring aviators and comes from New Britain.

Charles K. Hamilton, famous air pilot who recently flew from New York to Philadelphia, calls this city "home," and has consented to show the home folks today what he learned since the day he tried to fly over his father's shed with an umbrella.

The man-bird came here from Nashville, Tenn., where he instructed United States Army men how to use the aeroplane in war, to aid New Britain charities. In Walnut Hill Park the scene of the aviator's flight, 100,000 persons from all over New England it is estimated, watched Hamilton dive, dip, turn and cut the vapors that have made him reckless during his flight this afternoon.

Today Hamilton hinted that he might make a flight to New Haven and Willimantic. "Hamilton Day" is the first aviation meet ever held in New England.

CAPTAIN KILLED, THREE FIREMEN SERIOUSLY HURT

(Special from United Press.)

St. Louis, July 2.—Fire Captain M. J. Lyons was killed, Herman Ficker, a laborer, injured, and three firemen seriously cut and bruised today in a fire which destroyed the Waters-Pierce Oil Company's storage and shipping station here. Ficker died later. The loss was nearly $200,000.

BUILDING PERMITS.

The aggregate value of building operations in this city during the first quarter of the fiscal year ending June 31, as compared with the same months in 1909, is $79,000 less. The total number of permits given was 232 against 238 a year ago but there were more garages and fewer homes built during the quarter. The aggregate value of the permits issued in 1909 was $378,278.

DIED.

NEGROES IN SOUTH STIRRED OVER FIGHT OUTCOME

White Residents Are Apprehensive of What May Occur If Johnson Wins

Washington, July 2.—In sections of the south where the race question is a vital issue and in many cities along the "borderland," the Jeff-Johnson fight has taken on an aspect of the utmost seriousness and apprehension is felt today as to the result, if the negro wins. Negroes throughout the south are intensely interested in the fight and eagerly grasp phrases from the newspapers as the "struggle for the supremacy of the race," etc.

"Why, some of these young negroes now are so proud that it is hard to get along with them," said one southerner, "but if Jeff should be beaten by Johnson, they will be crowding white women off the sidewalks and there are plenty of towns where such an action as that would cause deplorable trouble."

"It's hard for me to form an opinion," said a southern representative, "I think that the white man who would deliberately get into a ring to fight a negro deserves to be beaten to death. If Jeff is defeated, most southerners will say he got what was coming to him. On the other hand they will deeply regret that the negroes should be stirred up to a point where dangerous exultation in the belief that the supremacy of the black over the white has been established."

Among the negro office holders in this city Johnson is receiving great support though so far but little betting has been recorded.

Chicago, July 2.—Several thousand dollars was bet here today at 10 to 1, on the Jeff-Johnson fight, the white man ruling favorite.

HAWLEY BROTHERS TO RECOVER FROM SISTER, $11,925

Judge Howard J. Curtis in the Superior Court has found for the plaintiff to recover $11,925 and costs in the suit of William and Alan Hawley of New York against their sister, Jennie M. Hawley Levee of New Canaan, according to a decision rendered this morning. Prior to 1905 the two brothers advanced to their sister about $9,000 in notes. These notes the sister claimed were gifts. The court found that the three live in accord, mutual trust and confidence up to 1905. The sister kept house for her brothers, who in turn gave her various sums of money. The court finds that if the estate of the mother had been divided at the time of her death the sister would have received an equal share with the brothers, less the $9,000 advanced to her through them. The court finds that the sister held the money against their sister in case something should happen. As has been shown, something did happen for the sister died. The court finds that the sister, when she died, owned the money. The court finds that the sister, when she died, owned the money. The court finds that the sister, when she died, owned the money.

PREFERRED POOL ROOM TO AUTOMOBILE RIDES

Despairing of training up her son in the right direction, Mrs. Charles Valentine, 2093 Main street, wife of a foreman for the New Britain Ice Co., turned 15 years old Raymond Valentine over to the police last night. She charged with being an incorrigible. Mrs. Valentine said she and her husband served him a pool table and gave him everything he could want. She charged with being an incorrigible. Pretty Stenographer Causes Arrest of Persistent Admirer

Edward Benham, 670 William street, aged 27, was arrested in the office of Attorney George Farley, Meigs building, this afternoon on complaint of Farley's pretty stenographer, Elizabeth Solen, 313 Jane street. Miss Solen had complained to the police that Benham had been forcing his attentions upon her, and Benham was warned at police headquarters early this week that he persisted in annoying Miss Solen he would be arrested. This afternoon Miss Solen's brother called Patrolman Taylor from the rear of the Benham house in the office. On the strength of Miss Solen's story he was charged with assault and breach of the peace, and locked up.

NEW BRITAIN BEAT HOLYOKE

(Special from United Press.) New Britain, July 2.—A portion of the large crowd that came on here today to see Charles K. Hamilton do his stunts in the air saw the locals walk off with the game of a double bill, with Holyoke, 12-4. Six pitchers were used, three by each, the visiting heavyweights being pounded for 18 hits. The score:

R. H. E.
New Britain, 4 0 0 1 3 2 0 0—12—18—1
Holyoke, 1 0 0 1 2 0 0 0—4—11—3

Most Noted Experts Say Jeffries Should Win

they anticipate many heat prostrations. The taking of moving pictures in this camp resolved itself into a howling farce. It looked more like a wine show than a heavyweight training for a championship bout with Jeff, the "champion of the white race" being pictured with friends, celebrities or well known sports, so that those who had been hoping to see the fight being looked like at Moana a few hours before the fight.

At every opportunity two contestants for the championship honors hurried their combined six hundred pounds of avoirdupois into the very center of the arena, waving a standard bearing the name of their brand. Why Jeff stood for it is more than can be said. He was not in the ring. The entrance to Jeff's cot was an ill-represented sign bearing the name of the wine. While the moving pictures of Jeff and his training squad were being taken the wine sign hung over Jeff's head. It is only fair to Jeff, however, to say that he refused to be photographed standing in the veranda of his cottage with this banner over his head.

(By Tip Wright) Johnson's Training Camp, Rick's Resort, Reno, Nev., July 2.—Betting on Monday's fight, which has been tight up to the present time despite the contrary reports, began to get brisk today. Some indication of what the Johnson followers will do and where they stand on the betting was given out last night when a crowd of Jack's admirers tried to bluff Bob Armstrong, Jeffries' dusky sparring partner, by offering to bet $1,000 on Johnson at 6-1 to 10. Armstrong immediately vanished, amid the jeers of his colored brethren, but the Johnson crowd lost its jubilation and changed its tune when Bob returned half an hour later accompanied by Denver Ed Martin and a thousand plunks ready to bet. The admirers of Johnson declined to take the bait and the crowd that had gathered at the hotel hooted at them.

Things are pretty dull these days around both camps, the proceedings being enlivened only by a strong undercurrent of excitement. Both men have knocked off work and Johnson does nothing but loaf and play the bass viol while Jeff fishes. Frank Gotch arrived at Jeffries' training camp last night, but it is doubtful if he will assist the bolter-maker in any way except by one or two short wrestling bouts.

(By Roger Cornell, Chief Trainer for Jeffries, Written Especially for the United Press.) Jeffries' Training Camp, Reno, Nev., July 2.—Contrary to the popular belief there is nothing incongruous in the statement that James J. Jeffries will be in the best condition of his career when he enters the ring next Monday. There is nothing miraculous about it and this trite expression has become an actual fact.

The reason for any incongruity lies in the fact that retirement is commonly associated with old age. Jeffries' retirement came before he was 35 years old, before he reached the height of physical perfection to which some men come late. This is proved by the fact that Jeff is larger boned now than he was then and that he has developed in every manner. Jeff has not had to "come back" in the sense that he was a "has been" but as a precaution he has devoted a year and a half to preparation for a fight for which training would usually last only six weeks.

Jeff will be faster Monday than in any previous fight. His whole system of training has been designed to build up his speed and soften his muscles. As the result of having soft muscles he will be able to stand more punishment than he would if nature's armor had been hard and rigid. With this end in view, Jeff has actually spent more time on the massage table than in the ring and the result will be an athletic masterpiece for speed and endurance.

A great deal has been said about Jeff's lack of boxing practice. On the eve of the fight, now that secrecy is no longer of any value, I will say that Jeff has had practically double the amount of boxing and massage that the public has heard of. For several weeks past and on every day when the crowd was disappointed in not getting in to see the big fellow work, he was boxing. Jeff has been boxing at 4 a. m. and thus has been pulling out his brother Jack and Bob Armstrong for secret boxing. These workouts were invariably followed by massage, the whole proceedings being kept secret in order to clinch the belief in Johnson's camp that Jeff was not working as hard as necessary. Jeff will win this fight well under 30 rounds but should the battle go beyond that it will see Jeff carrying the battle, so full of speed and vitality, to surprise all except his most intimate followers.

COLOR LINE DRAWN.

Birmingham, Ala., July 2.—In order that there shall be no chance of a race war following next Monday's Caucasian-Ethiopian contest at Reno, Mayor O'Brien today issued an order that negroes and whites shall not be permitted to congregate in the same places to hear the fight. Bulletins are to be received in a number of amusement parks, theatres and halls and the mayor today warned the managers that they must not permit the races to mix. Each must be either a white or a black crowd, declared the mayor.

HOW THE PURSE

WILL BE DIVIDED. It has been known for many months that Jeffries and Johnson would battle for a purse of $101,000. The articles of agreement call for a division of this purse on the basis of 75 per cent to the winner and 25 per cent to the loser. Regarding the matter Rickard said: "Absolutely, and upon my word as a man, as the word is understood in Nevada, there is a $100,000 purse for which Jeffries and Johnson will fight. Furthermore, this purse is to be split 75 and 25, as called for by the articles of agreement. There is not and never was any agreement between the two fighters to divide the purse in equal parts, win lose or draw."

"Ever since the articles were signed in New Jersey each man has been confident that he would be the winner, and for that reason was not willing to split even when he believed that he could get the big end of the purse by simply defeating the other man. Both men have been put to big expense in preparing for this fight and naturally desire to make all they can out of it, and I know as the one who has been closest in touch with both of them that at no time has there been a desire to evenly divide the purse. Each one wants and expects to win three-quarters of it for himself."

The roadway on the south side of Fairfield avenue between the railroad viaduct and Ash creek bridge will be opened to the public tomorrow.

Work of rebuilding the north side of the roadway will be commenced on Tuesday. Director Kenny will probably oil the road to keep it in shape. Oil will be placed on Noble avenue from Berkshire avenue to Beardsley Park commencing on Tuesday. M. H. Ford has the contract for spreading the oil.

The Flag.

Your flag and my flag,
And how it flies today
In your land and my land
And half a world away!
Rose-red and blood-red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow-white and soul-white—
The good forefathers dream;
Sky-blue and true-blue with stars to gleam aright
The gloried guidon of the day; a shelter through the night.

Your flag and my flag!
And, oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun-kissed and wind-tossed—
Red and blue and white.
The one flag—the great flag—the flag for me and you—
Glorified all else beside the red and white and blue!

Your flag and my flag!
To every star and stripe
The drums beat as hearts beat
And fifers shrilly pipe!
Your flag and my flag!
A blessing in the sky;
Your hope and my hope—
It never hid a lie!
Home land and far land and half the world around,
Old Glory hears our glad salute and ripples to the sound!

EIGHT KILLED IN RACE RIOT

(Special from United Press.)

Mendenhall, Miss., July 2.—Eight men, six negroes and two white men, have been killed in the race riots about Mendenhall, marked yesterday by the shooting and lynching of a negro named Skiffer and the beating of two other negroes by a mob of whites who claimed Skiffer had shielded Jim Brady, a negro, accused of killing Luther Buckley, a white man.

The trouble has developed into a regular warfare today. The whites are pursuing a gang of negroes headed by Brady, through the swamps. The trouble has now lasted for four days. On Thursday one of the white men, whose name has not yet been learned, was shot from ambush while searching for Brady. The pursuit continued unabated today and other killings are expected.

NEW YORK GASPING FROM EFFECTS OF HEAT

(Special from United Press.) New York, July 2.—Following a sweltering night during which the mercury registered 85 and the percentage of humidity was the highest for the summer, New York awoke today gasping, with no prospects for an immediate change. The parks, roofs, fire-escapes and beach resorts were turned into camping places last night where thousands tried vainly to get refreshing sleep. The humid atmosphere caused more suffering than when the mercury was hovering about the hundred mark and the emergency hospitals and regular institutions all reported cases of prostration.

Five deaths, directly due to the heat, had been reported to the police early today and many of the prostrations were recorded as "very serious." The fact that it was the beginning of a three day holiday helped somewhat. Trains leaving the city today were jammed and the railroads, to maintain a service to the beach resorts, carried regular trains with a number of trailers following to carry away the crowds. It was estimated by Police Captain Michael Galvin, commanding the Coney Island precinct, that more than $0,000 spent the night on the sands at the beach resort. With the certainty that the weather would continue hot and the thunderstorms (and the prospect of them remote) would interfere with three days of pleasure, the proprietors of every beach resort within 50 miles of this city prepared to reap a harvest that would make up for the vast amounts lost by the wet spring season.

All the exchanges were closed today and will remain closed until July 5th, and many of the big stores also shut down to give their employees a three days' rest.
